POLICE SEEK MAN HERE IN CLARK CASE

Stranger Carries Car Pass Issued Slain Motorman by Key System; Bath House Robbery Incident a Clue

Letters From Mother of Man Who Serves Bigamy Term Confuse Mrs. Clark; Light Shed on Convict's Family

Police have started search for an Oakland man in the further quest for a motive for the shooting of Chester J. Clark, Key Route motorman, by Virginia, his wife. They know there is in Oakland a man who has knowledge of the Clark case.

At the same time they are following up the clues obtained from letters to Mrs. Clark from the mother of a bigamist, Fred J. Long, now in an eastern penitentiary.

Also they are seeking explanation of Mrs. Clark's connection with Corporal William A. Bird, Troop L, North Cavalry, Camp Mather, and Robert L. Barrett, U. S. S. Wellington, Shanghai, regarding whose reference has been found in letters.

RIDES ON CLARK'S TROLLEY PASS CARD.

The man here is believed to be one who has been riding on a car pass issued to Clark, and to be identical with a man who robbed Clark at an Alameda bathing beach a short time before the shooting, by taking the motorman's pass to his bath house property check.

The police believe the man obtained the car pass from Mrs. Clark, and that he had his friend, Mrs. Clark, disclose this.

The story of a neighbor that Mrs. Clark came home one night shortly before the murder in a closed automobile driven by a stranger, who held to daylight into the police links, says he knows.

LONGS IN EAST.

Further light was shed on the case this morning when A. W. DeWitt, Oakland representative of the Columbia Big Sister Motor Company, Twenty-third and Webster streets, informed the Captain of Inspectors that he was acquainted with the Long family in Leominster, Mass., and had been in contact with them.

DeWitt said that he had been in a lot of trouble as a youth by passing bad checks, and had later become entangled in a bigamy case for which he was now serving in Virginia. Clark or Virginia Van Alden.

Mrs. Clark told the police this morning that she was never in Leominster, Mass., and that she had met Long in Hartford, Conn.

It is foolish to question me about that," said Mrs. Clark. "It is true that I knew Mr. Long in the east a long time ago, but I dropped him before I came to this country."

REFUSES TO GO FARTHER IN QUIZ.

"Why did you take up with him again then after you were married and settled in the west?"

"I knew he was in trouble and I felt sorry for him; that's all," she said. "I never saw his mother."

"How did you happen to write to her," asked the police.

"I only sent her a card and that has been the correspondence," she said. "I was entirely innocent, all of it."

"Did your husband send the letters who wrote you?"

"No, he did not."

"And why, if it was entirely innocent, did you have the letters sent to you in your maiden name and to a clandestine address?" asked the police.

"I refuse to answer," said Mrs. Clark.

To all questions put to her as to why Mrs. Joseph Long should have written of wedding plans indicated by consideration by Mrs. Clark and Fred Long, the prisoner here makes no direct answer.

She was first confronted by the letters last night in the city prison. "On the advice of my attorney I will say nothing," she told the police then.

ADMIT HUSBAND KNEW OF PLO BOX.

Further questioning, however, elicited the admission that the letters were written by her husband, who had a private mail box she rented "because the mother of Clark's former wife was in meddling with her mail," and that Fred Long was the son of a wealthy Massachusetts family she had met in Hartford a year ago.

Last night the police made a further search of the envelopes, finding the postmark of Weatherfield where they had contained had been destroyed.

The letters written by Mrs. Clark to Long and to Mrs. Joseph Long, Leominster, Mass., Long's mother, are still in existence as indicated by one of Mrs. Long's letters to the woman here.

I was down to see our dear boy today," says Mrs. Long, "and I showed him your sweet letters to me. And I took all those you had written to him home with me, and when all the clouds have blown away, I will give to both of you your letters to keep as sweet remembrances."

The departments of Hartford, Leominster and Weatherfield to obtain all correspondence relating to the case.

REFERS TO BIGAMY CHARGE IN LETTER.

Four letters were found from Mrs. Joseph Long. They were concealed in a roll of lingerie. Mrs. Bassie Stone, sister of the murdered

Mrs. George K. Neher, Rich Widow, Becomes Confused When Auto Bears Down On Her; Son in University

Mrs. George K. Neher, aged 45, a wealthy widow of Albuquerque, New Mexico, was run down and killed this morning on Alameda way, at Union street, by a big car driven by William Helm, aged 20, of Fresno, a freshman at the University of California. When Mrs. Neher was rushed to the emergency hospital it was found that she had in her purse a check for $1000 and $800 in currency.

Mrs. Neher was rushed to the El Reposo Sanatorium, which was but a block away, where it was found that she had sustained a basal fracture of the skull. She was then taken to the Berkeley Emergency Hospital, where she died.

Little Girl Is Rescued From Bold Assailant

Signalman Routs Culprit With Iron Bar After Battle in Ravine.

Roused by the screams of a child coming from a ravine at Adelina and Fifty-second street last night, H. Clark, a signalman, rushed to the spot, and after a desperate battle with her assailant rescued nine-year-old Dorothy Phillips, of 378 Fifty-second street.

Clark told the police that the assailant fled with blood streaming down his face and badly cut up from blows by a crowbar wielded by the rescuer. Officers are now searching for the assailant.

According to the little girl she was on her way home from a store last evening when she was seized by a large, well-dressed man who dragged her into the ravine. She screamed repeatedly and in a few minutes Clark, who was stationed at Fifty-second and Adelina, rushed up, carrying an iron bar.

The man lunged forward with his fist, but Clark dropped the girl and tried to beat Clark down with his fists. Several blows landed on the assailant's head, but he finally knocked Clark out with a punch to the jaw, and fled with blood streaming from wounds on his head and face.

Clark soon recovered and notified the police.

America also scored heavily in the 200-meter dash, Allen Woodring of Philadelphia winning in the time of 22 seconds against a record time of 21 3/4 seconds set in 1904 in St. Louis by A. Mann.

Charles W. Padlock of the Los Angeles A. C. finished second, 11 F. Edwards, England, third, Lorn Murchison, of the New York A. C., fourth, G. Davidson, New Zealand, fifth, and Oosterveld, of South Africa, sixth.

PICTURE BRIDES' AROUSE PHELAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Senator James D. Phelan has asked the United States State Department to ascertain when the Japanese government will stop sending "picture brides."

Edward White, commissioner of immigration of San Francisco, saying hundreds of Chinese were deserting their ships with sailors cards and remaining here, advocates that ships employing Chinese crews be forced to give bond to insure against desertion.

Chester H. Rowell, of Fresno, in an address in San Francisco hailed California as "the end of the white man's trail."

These were the three outstanding features today in California's fight for Oriental exclusion.

PHELAN PROTEST

Termining the bringing in of picture brides an evasion of the "gentleman's agreement" and pointing out that since the Japanese government, last February, promised to cease issuing passports to these brides, "large numbers of them entered this port in July, a big cargo arrived August 12, on the Korea Maru and another is due August 26," Senator Phelan in his telegram asks that the practice cease at once.

"The Orient is dumping into San Francisco large numbers of Chinese coolies under the guise of sailors," White declared. "If the captain of a vessel certifies a man as a member of his crew, a card must be issued permitting him to land. Once ashore, he disappears. The steamship companies say they cannot help it if their 'boys' desert."

PROPOSES BONDS

"I have made recommendations to the Department of Labor that some regulations be made to enforce the exclusion act. Oriental sailors either should not be allowed shore leave in American ports or the steamship companies should put up bonds for their return."

Rowell, who has been studying conditions in Hawaii, in an address before the San Francisco Center said that "California must hold the frontier of Occidentalism against the Oriental invasion not only for America but for all Europe until Hawaii solves the problem of racial assimilation. There is one human blunder that cannot be unmade—that is the mixing of races."

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. The scalp will stop itching, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advert.

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

Joe is a traveling salesman. Tessie is his loving wife. Follow their letters in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

DEAR JOE:

In the first place, Joe, before I forget it, you got to stop alluding to the baby as "it." Considering how proud and stuck up you were in the first place about having a boy baby, and putting on airs with Sid Kelly and Ed Judge because there was girls, I think it's real unbecoming of you now to go alluding to the child in the neuter sex.

He's real manly already, Joe. Just before meal times he's as grumpy as a bear and you can't go anywhere near him without getting a nasty look, but the moment he's fed you ought to see the change. Not that I'm knocking you or nothing, Joe. In fact it's a real comfort to have him like that. It's like having you around in the spirit, you might say.

My goodness Joe ain't the high cost of living fiercer and fiercer? I went around to Stutz's store this morning for some potatoes and how much do you think they was, Joe? 15 cents a pound! Can you imagine that, Joe? I remember when potatoes was so cheap nobody didn't have any respect for them. That's life, Joe.

I remember I couldn't make up my mind whether I wanted to marry you or not till the first time I saw you with a silk shirt on. It was that blue and green and orange and yellow one that I liked so much because it went so good with any necktie.

Anyway, Joe, I say to Mr. Stutz, I says, Mr. Stutz, I says, I inquired the price of mushrooms, not mushrooms. And he says, Well, he says, if you'd asked the price of mushrooms I'd of had to get the boys to carry you home on a shutter as a result of what I'd of been obliged to tell you. Can you imagine that, Joe.

Well, Joe don't take any wooden alcohol.

Aff.

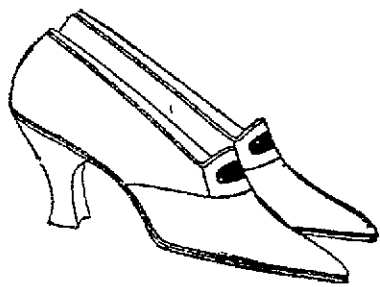

TESSIE.

SENATE PLEDGED RETURN OF POWER BY SEN. HARDING

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Senator Harding, in his speech here yesterday afternoon, said his Democratic critics were correct in supposing that if elected he would "permit the Senate to have some say in determining the policy of the government."

The speech was delivered from the front porch and cheered by members and former members of the Ohio legislature. It was the second of the day, a crowd of about 1,000 persons gathered from Kenton, Ohio, having induced him to make a brief talk when they paid him a noonday visit. "To whom he returned the compliment that it was for American rights that the nation entered the world war, and added a promise that if he were elected there would be no surrender of American nationality."

"The Senate saved American nationality in 1919 and 1920," said Harding in his second speech, "when the executive proposed to surrender to autocracy reared in the council of the Senate than all the political bosses."

"I want to have done with personal government, and to put an end to autocracy reared in the council of the Senate than all the political bosses."

ON SENATE FILIBUSTER

The Senator also referred to the Senate filibuster which blocked several big appropriations bills in the last days of the Democratic Congress and said that while he did not approve at the time, the development had saved about a billion dollars by putting the supply measures over into the Republican Congress.

The League of Nations was touched on briefly, Harding declaring article 10 would bring down the orderly processes of the federal government by transferring from Congress to a foreign council the power to decide when the nations should go to war.

"It would be a sorry thing," he said, after commenting on his early legislative impressions, for public men to forget their duty. "Somehow, there has been a tendency of late to ignore this obligation. It is not easy for me to forget the oath I assumed when I entered the Senate. It was the reminder of that oath that impelled me in opposing the unreserved ratification of the League of Nations covenant. I could not accept the covenant as written and be faithful to that oath."

TEXT OF ADDRESS

He continued in part:

"I confess amazement at the ignorance of some of our people as to the Senate, or the contempt of others for the Senate's proper and constitutional part in federal government."

"I am not disparaging the House of Congress. Many of the brilliant contributors to American statecraft have left the impress of their exceptional statesmanship on the activities of the House."

"I do not hesitate to say that the Senate saved American nationality in 1919 and 1920 when the executive proposed to surrender to the Senate the power to decide when the nations should go to war."

"The practices of the Senate are not so ancient or so firmly fixed that they do not yield to reform, and the Senate is not so inflexible to intelligent public opinion."

"It has been suggested that in case of a Republican victory the incoming President proposed to permit the Senate to have some say in determining the policy of government. I gladly proclaim all these suggestions literally correct."

"I submerge myself for the period of the war and surrendered to the executive because we wanted to marshal all our forces and resources under one authority, and we are at peace today and we need restoration of constitutional government, as much as we need restoration of the staple ways of peace."

SENATE TO HAVE SAY

"If a Republican administration is chosen, you can be certain that the Senate, theoretically if not actually, will have something to say about the foreign relations as the constitution contemplates."

"There has been no failure on the part of the House, because that body joins the Senate in the abiding policy of committing this republic to fidelity of covenant."

"We failed to keep any covenant we should be held in contempt."

"This thought may well be applied to the proposal that this republic can subscribe to article X and enter the League of Nations and submit to the rule of a council of foreign powers, on the theory that only Congress can make the declaration of war."

"It is true only Congress can make the declaration, just as it is true that only Congress can make an appropriation of money to carry out a covenant that we should not."

"If this nation agrees to accept the decision of a foreign council, then we should be guilty of a bad faith."

"I would think it much better to hold aloof from internationalism than stamp that relationship with perjury from the beginning."

"The tendency has been for the executive to arrogate to himself all powers of government. Maybe it is old-fashioned to get back to the constitution, but I can well believe it will be a wholesome change. I want to have done with personal government. I want to quit an autocracy, reared in the name of democracy. I want a government of laws rather than of men."

DRAWN PARALLEL

"We had a period of popular resentment of the existence of our courts, and for a time there was the suggestion that we should submit their decisions to popular sanction. There isn't much choice between venomous assault on the integrity of the courts and the momentary clamor about submitting the Senate from the responsibility in government."

"I do not know whether the idea is one imported from the peace council, or whether it is a reflex of the mob mentality which has broken out in Europe. Our business is to hold America stable. Our task is to preserve popular representative, constitutional government."

"There can be no permanent good fortune if the rewards of toil are bestowed on particular groups. There can be no assurance of stability if one great group preys on another. Our thought is to work out such just laws and see to their proper enforcement that government will not be influenced by any element in American life made ineffectual through its physical might, or strength of possessions, but that representative government shall ever be righteous and just and give its concern to the good fortunes of all American people."

Well, Folks, Here It Is, as Certain as Election Year

QUINCY, Ill., Aug. 28.—The "Ain't Nature Wonderful" Club of Quincy is all agog today as the result of the discovery of a slice of watermelon whose red meat was plainly traced with the name "Harding" spelled by the white fiber.

Bishop M. E. Faurett of the Episcopal diocese of the Episcopal Church, who vouches for the story, says the name was clearly and plainly spelled.

The Harding watermelon was discovered by Miss Margaret Bishop, who showed it to the bishop.

TRUNK LINES JUNE DEFICIT 15 MILLION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Trunk line railroads incurred a deficit of $15,616,328 on June operations, according to a preliminary report issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission. For the six months of 1920, including June, the report fixed net railway operating income at $13,664,120, against $164,930,908 in 1919. Increased wage charges, which the roads have been obligated to pay under the decision of the wage board, were included in a part of the mileage reported on, the commission said, but it did not have ascertained for all the lines.

Gross operating revenue during June, the report said, was $480,949,000, while operating expenses were $64,985,000. The ratio of expenses to revenues was 86.7 per cent, while for June, 1919, it was 83.5 per cent.

TAX TOTAL LARGE

In addition, taxes totaled $3,469,000, while back wages due under the increase of the wage board amounted to $25,371,765.

Railroad operations in all districts except the Western contributed to the deficit, which it is indicated, will be somewhat larger than reported when the full extent of the retroactive wage increase is felt. The Western district showed net operating income of $12,113,198 while the deficit in the Eastern district was $19,161,555, in the Southern district $21,536, and in the Pocahontas district, a new sub-division created by the commission, the recent rate increase, the deficit was $1,356,434.

A note attached to the table says: "To compare earnings power of roads in 1920 and 1919, it should be noted that corporate war taxes are not included in 1919 returns; that the revenue of all roads for six months of 1920 include approximately $50,000,000 back matter pay and that the increased wage accrual resulting from decision by the United States railroad labor board, retroactive to May 1, are incomplete."

BIG FOUR LINES

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Effects of the traffic situation in 1919 are set forth in the annual report of the Great Lakes, Illinois, and St. Louis railway (Big Four lines) issued today with the recording of a decrease of 35,212 tons in the car mileage for the year and a decrease of 1,020,510,520 tons in freight carried one mile.

Net operating revenue totaled $18,429,041.45, a decrease of $2,079,877.07 over 1919. In spite of the decrease, however, the company earned considerably more than the compensation allowed it under the contract with the government.

Zeppelin Trip Round World Is Predicted

That the Zeppelin dirigible people in Germany, or in the United States, will make a non-stop flight around the world within a dirigible within the next twelve months, unless prevented by the Allies in dirigible development, was the forecast made today in a communication received by Mayor John L. Davis from Major Charles J. Glidden, officer in charge of the contest for the first aerial tour around the world, organized jointly by the Aero Club of America and the Aerial League of America.

Major Glidden, with whom Mayor Davis was recently in touch in an effort to secure the highest prize for the Pacific coast, to accommodate the aeroplanes of 1921, which the writer forecasts will have a speed of 200 miles an hour.

DAUGHERTY SAYS G. O. P. FRICTION TALES ARE FALSE

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Harry M. Daugherty, manager of the pro-convention campaign of Senator Harding, said today there was no foundation for reports of friction between him and National Chairman Hays.

Reports were that Daugherty was dissatisfied because he had not been made Republican national chairman and that he did not like the way Senator Harding's campaign was being conducted.

"The campaign must at all times be in harmony with the candidate and the cause," Daugherty said today. "As far as the plans of the party are concerned, they will go on in an orderly fashion as laid out from time to time by Chairman Hays and the committee in conference with the candidate."

Daugherty also said that "without assuming to speak for anybody" but himself, neither "bombast" nor "personality" would be employed in the campaign.

"A campaign of personalities may not be expected, nor a campaign of bombast, but rather a campaign of dignity—and in harmony with the temperament of the candidate and the dignity of the position to which he aspires."

In the columns of Senator Harding's newspaper, the Marion Star, the following have appeared:

"The 5000 operatives in Marion's industrial plants have given Harding enthusiastic support as have Marion county farmers."

"Harding never said a dollar a day is enough for any workingman, but that which might be so construed, nor that a dollar a bushel is enough for the farmers' wheat."

WOMEN'S VOTES
MEAN NO G. O. P.
CHANGE, IS WORD

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Will E. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who conferred with Senator Penrose at the latter's home here yesterday, expressed gratification over the decision of the suffrage amendment.

"It means hundreds of thousands of men voters who will be seeking the right," he said. "It means better politics, a better government. I hope for the liberation of this great element of potential strength. It will place us in the right position in government affairs. We anticipate the ratification and have been working for it, and we are prepared to act under it."

Ratification of the amendment, Chairman Hays said, would not cause any important changes in the Republican plan of campaign.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

I glanced up at Maj. Grantland involuntarily, was in time to see the lines of his face congel into ice, and to catch the glint of steel in his eyes as he turned them on Dick's mother.

"I shall be happy to place myself at your service for the answering of any questions after dark," said Maj. Grantland's fine eyes flash in approval.

"I think I can wait," I said.

Maj. Grantland put a gentle but firm hand upon my shoulder.

"Lie down," he said authoritatively. "You must let me manage this."

To my surprise my mother-in-law acquiesced in his decision with her favorite alibi, "I shall be as gentle and as careful as I can," she said tartly. "This way, Maj. Grantland."

Despite the pain in my side, which seemed to be growing worse every second, I smiled involuntarily at the militant figure my mother-in-law presented as she swept across the room and opened the door. She was very like a major herself of the drum species. I thought whimsically.

Maj. Grantland bent over me.

"Can you raise your arms and support yourself against my shoulder?" he asked. "I thought not," I cried out sharply. "Is it your arm or your side at the left?"

"My side," I whispered, but my right side does not hurt."

"Then lift your right arm. There! That's right. Don't be nervous now. I shall be as gentle and as careful as I can," he said. "I don't think I shall hurt you much."

He stooped and gathered me in his arms as if I had been a child and held me as gently and as deftly as a mother would a baby. But he could not help the pain which caught my lungs as in a vise and made it almost impossible for me to breathe. I tried hard to be brave, but I could not keep back little moans of pain as we mounted the stairs, and heency had arranged in the few seconds' leavey. When he put me down upon my bed, which Mother Graham with deft fingers uttered.

"I have always prized myself upon my self control, but every iota of it was shredded from me by the increasing pain, different from anything I had ever before experienced, which tore at the side of my chest. Maj. Grantland had put me down upon my bed.

"Oh, what is it?" I gasped wildly, looking up at him in an unreasonable panic.

He put out his hand and took mine in a strong grip.

"Don't be frightened," he said. "I do not think it is dangerous, but I am afraid you have fractured a rib. The physician, of course, will be here to examine you and to put you to rest. But just now there is nothing for you except to be your intrepid, natural self."

My mother-in-law, who had busied herself with putting in order the trunks scattered upon my dressing table, gave one of her characteristic snorts.

"Major Grantland," she said crisply, "if you have quite finished reassuring my daughter-in-law, perhaps you will be so kind as to let me attend to her. I must undress her and put her to bed. Please send the maid up as you go down stairs."

"Oh," I exclaimed in a frenzy of humiliation at the insulting tone and words, "I am so sorry. It is shameful."

"Don't give it another thought," he said in a low tone, pressing my hands slightly and laying them down upon the bed. Then he turned to my mother-in-law, and his words were as measured and cold as the dripping of an icicle.

"Mrs. Graham must be moved as little as possible before the physician arrives. Movement is torture to her. Remove her shoes, cut her clothing wherever it is impossible to remove it without movement upon her part. Above everything keep her quiet until the physician comes."

His voice had the ring of one accustomed to command instant obedience and respectful attention. But those under his authority had been soldiers, not an irascible old woman.

She threw back her head haughtily and assumed her most crushing grande dame manner.

"You will, perhaps, pardon me, Maj. Grantland, if I remind you that I am the mother-in-law of Dr. Braithwaite, whose work in Paris attracted a great deal of favorable comment during the war. I was a member of his household for years and I do not need your advice or that of any other non-medical man upon the proper procedure to follow with a possible fractured rib preceding the arrival of a physician."

Salmon Decline Due to Poor Hatching

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20.—Improper methods of artificial propagation used by Washington state hatcheries are said by Oregon State Fish Commission members to be responsible for a noticeable decline in the salmon industry of Puget Sound. The Oregon commissioners point out that the salmon industry in Puget Sound has decreased from more than 4,000,000 cases in 1912 to some 2,000,000 cases in 1917, while the pack on the Columbia river has increased from 225,000 cases in 1912 to 500,000 in 1917.

The salmon in Puget Sound are now practically annihilated, says Master Fish Warden R. B. Clanton of the Oregon fish commission.

Boy Scout Movement Revived in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 20.—The Boy Scout movement in Mexico is being revived. A call has been issued by the leaders of the movement, for all lads between twelve and seventeen years of age to present themselves for enrollment. The Boy Scouts, or "The Corps of Mexican Explorers," as they are called here, formerly enjoyed a number of privileges from the government which provided them with uniforms, shoes and even a small money allowance to pay their expenses during their excursions.

During the revolution the movement virtually ceased. It is planned to give it new impulse along the lines formerly followed.

Shaves himself, sometimes with a safety razor.

Climbs stairs with a cane to exercise his leg muscles.

Dictates rapidly and frequently; writes shorthand notes of what he wants done.

BERKELEY, Aug. 20.—Students sent to jail for speeding in the future can expect to pack their bags and prepare to stay, according to a warning given yesterday by Judge Harry Pulifer, sitting for Judge Robert Edgar in Berkeley.

BARROWS URGES DORMITORY PLAN

BERKELEY, Aug. 20.—Steps toward securing dormitories for college students were taken today with the appointment of a committee of senior men following a meeting last evening at the home of President David P. Barrows. Figures submitted by President Barrows showed that 2000 students were without suitable living quarters at present as the result of the shortage of dwellings. These students, said Dr. Barrows, would be given the first opportunity to live in dormitories.

Dr. Barrows stated the regents hoped soon to have funds to begin the buildings and asked the appointment of a committee to

CLERK HELD AS ROBBER OF SAFE
IN COURTROOM

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—Clarence Johnston, police court clerk, who reported Tuesday that the safe in the courtroom had been broken open and $24,000 in bail money taken, was arrested today on a charge of embezzlement and lodged in the Los Angeles county jail.

A secret indictment against Johnston was returned in the county grand jury yesterday and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

Johnston was tried at 10 o'clock Tuesday, said he found the lock forced off the inner door of the safe. The outer door, he said, had apparently been opened by some one familiar with the combination and unlocked after the theft. He said approximately $25,000 in currency had been taken from the inner compartment, and that the thief had overlooked $17,000 in money and bonds.

Detectives who examined the safe said the lock on the inner compartment had not been forced off. It had been on the inside of the door and was taken off by removal of the screws after the door had been opened with a key they said. The screws were found in a water drain in the courtroom.

Witnesses before the grand jury included city detectives, a stock broker with whom Johnston was said to have been connected, and Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran to have had dealings, and the auditor of a bank in which Johnston had a personal account.

Johnston was arraigned before Judge Willis and August 24 was set as the date for pleading. The accused had remained in the courtroom with a deputy sheriff while the safe was made secure. A statement was issued by the prisoner through his attorney denying the charge against him and declaring he was being made the goat of the police department.

SEVEN AUTOS OF POLICE FAIL TO CATCH BANDITS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—Policemen occupying seven automobiles fired about 300 shots at two fleeing robbers today. The robbers escaped apparently unscathed. The fusillade followed a robbery at a downtown restaurant. Two men drove up in an automobile, one remaining at the wheel while the other held up the restaurant cashier, securing about $75. As the two left the restaurant man screamed for help and a passing platoon of policemen marching to work commandeered seven cars and took up the fruitless chase, which led through two miles of downtown streets before the quarry escaped.

RECEIVERS NAMED IN PONZI TANGLE

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Judge Morton today named William R. Sears of Cohasset, John Forbes Perkins of Milton and Edward A. Thurston of Fall River as receivers in connection with the original Ponzi scheme in bankruptcy for Charles Ponzi now in Cambridge jail on a charge of using the mail to defraud.

Ponzi's statement that assets would aggregate $4,000,000 is the only estimate available. The receivers will be called upon to adjust claims when already aggregated more than the sum and the total is likely to run to $7,000,000, according to the estimate of Edwin L. Pride, federal accountant.

These figures include the 50 per cent profits promised.

With the probability that settlement of claims will be on the basis of actual investments, the figures will be pared down by approximately one-third. The receivers also will be called upon to decide whether they will proceed against those persons to whom Ponzi paid the 50 per cent profit.

Ponzi asserted he paid out $7,500,000. Some of these payments were refunds of actual investments only. Accordingly, the amount of money paid out by Ponzi in interest and subject to action by the receivers, should it be held that undue preference was given the persons who received it, would be approximately $2,000,000.

THROUGHS ATTEND
CHAPMAN BURIAL

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 20.—Cleveland paid its final tribute to Ray Chapman today.

Long before 10 o'clock, the hour of the funeral services in St. John's Cathedral, thousands of men, women and children had gathered to attend the services for the star shortstop of the Cleveland American League team who died in New York Tuesday morning. When the services began several thousands were unable to gain admission. Tears glistened in the eyes of many in the waiting throng.

When the funeral party left the home of Chapman's parents and proceeded to the church, Federations paused and stood at attention and hats of the men and of hundreds of small boys were doffed.

Times at St. John's Park and on downtown buildings were half mast and operations in many industrial plants were suspended for a few minutes.

Mayor W. S. Fitzgerald, E. B. Johnson, president of the American League, and James C. Dunn, president of the entire Cleveland team were at the services. Three of the Cleveland team, Manager Chris Speaker, Steve O'Neill and Joe Wood wore pall bearers.

More than 300 floral offerings were sent by friends, among them being an immense floral blanket, a tribute from 20,000 persons who contributed ten cents each to a "flower from a fan" fund.

The remainder of the money will be turned over to a fund to erect a bronze memorial tablet at League Park.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 20.—An order that the start of all games in the Pacific Coast League be delayed for five minutes today, during which time the players shall stand with bared heads as a tribute to Ray Chapman, shortstop of the Cleveland club, whose funeral takes place today was issued by President Wm. H. McCarthy of the league.

INDIANA SEEKS

ITS UTILITIES

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—Immediate government action is imperative to prevent complete shutdown of utilities in Indiana, declared a telegram sent to Indiana Senators and Representatives in Congress by J. W. McCordie of the Indiana Public Service commission today.

"Conditions could not be worse," says the telegram. "Eighty per cent of the coal consuming public has no coal. Many utilities are on one day's supply. Should the originate in many cities, total loss would obtain. Delayed action should not be delayed to prevent a calamity now threatening the people of this State."

KANSAS HAS BIG CROP

We are very careful when we speak of the economy of fine coffee—it costs just about the same per cup as ordinary coffee.

Don't have to be so careful about tea. A cup of fine tea is much cheaper than common tea. There's no comparison.

There's no excuse for anybody getting common tea when Schilling Tea is right there at your grocer's, and your money back if you want it.

Society Girls Near Death in Accident

SAN RAFAEL, Aug. 20.—Patience Winchester, Florence Martin, Adeline Kent and Peggy Martin, four society girls here, narrowly escaped death when the car in which they were riding overturned on Fourth street, after Miss Kent, who was driving, had attempted to avoid hitting a vegetable wagon. The girls were taken to the emergency hospital where they were treated for bruises, none of which was serious.

Two years ago Margaret Winchester, sister of Patience Winchester, was struck by an automobile across the street from the scene of yesterday's accident, receiving injuries from which she later died. Miss Winchester, who was the most painfully injured of the four, is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Winchester.

McGraw Joins Giants;
Free From Law Tangle

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, has gone to Chicago to take charge of his team. It was announced today by his attorney, who said he had informed the district attorney's office that McGraw would return in 48 hours if he was wanted in connection with the inquiry as to how John C. Slavin actor, received a fractured skull in front of the McGraw home after a fracas at the "Lamb's" club.

McGraw was quoted as saying his presence was essential as his team needed him "in this critical time in the race for the pennant." McGraw's lawyer said the baseball man had nothing to do with Slavin's injuries.

FURNITURE MEN HEAR SPROULE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Furniture dealers in convention here heard J. B. Levison, president of the Firemen's Fund Insurance company, speak on "Impressions and Observations During a Recent Trip Abroad," at their luncheon today. Tomorrow Senator James M. Inman will speak on "The Japanese Situation."

William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific company, addressed the furniture men yesterday, analyzing the disposition of the railroad during 1919.

"In a month of thirty days," Sproule said, "the earnings of sixteen days go to paying the monthly wages of the employees. The roads are operated five and one-third days to earn money to pay for materials and supplies, four days to pay for fuel, one day for taxes, one-third of a day to pay salaries of the general officers, and only three and one-third days go into net operating income."

"The wages alone, paid railroad workers, are more, by hundreds of millions, this year than the total cost of operation before the war."

HIKERS TO TAKE SUNDAY TRIP IN OAKLAND HILLS

Webster A. Wieland, manager of Camp Wieland, Oakland's municipal camp in the Sierras, will lead a party of the Contra Costa Hills club Sunday morning, starting from the end of the Park boulevard car line at 9 a. m. Wieland and his party will climb the gorge of Palo Seco canyon to Camp Cindarella, which is now better known as Oakland's model recreation camp in Joaquin Miller park. After lunching, the hikers, reinforced by overnight knapsackers, will walk to Buckleberry ridge.

Camp Cindarella will be open to the public until the rains set in. It will be the scene of a two-day encampment over the Labor day holidays, when members of the Sierra club, the California Alpine club, the Roman club and other outdoor organizations will be the guests of the Oakland Recreation Department and the Contra Costa Hills club.

GOVERNOR EVANS TO SAIL AUG. 24

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Capt. Valdo B. Evans, newly appointed governor of American Samoa, to succeed Commander Warren J. Terhune, is in port en route to his new principality, and will leave for the South Seas August 24 on the steamer Ventura.

Captain Evans refused to discuss the charges of misgovernment and "autocratic rule" made against Commander Terhune by native chiefs and by Lieut. Commander Creed H. Boucher, one time captain of the yard at the naval station there, which led President Wilson to relieve Terhune and appoint Evans. Evans was former commander of the battleship Wyoming of the Pacific fleet.

Commander A. L. Kall of the flagship Minneapolis goes with Evans as executive officer of the naval station at Tutuila.

MARTINEZ GIVEN 3858 RESIDENTS; HELD TOO LOW

Announcement of the population of incorporated towns of Contra Costa county by the count of the 1920 census was made today at Washington, D. C. The towns are, with Richmond, which was previously announced: Antioch, 1,535; Concord, 812; El Cerrito, 1,584; Hercules, 373; Martinez, 3,858; Pinole, 947; Pittsburg, 1,535; Richmond, 14,842; Walnut Creek, 535.

MARTINEZ DISAPPOINTED
Martinez figures giving Martinez a population of 3,858, which is less than the 4,000 which was expected at least 3,000. The population in 1910 was 2,215, and then the Shell and Associated companies and the Pacific Coast upbuilding companies, as well as a number of lesser concerns have established their plants in or near Martinez. Many of their employees live there. The Martinez voting registration is 1,322, which is less than the 1,500 which is estimated at there are living in proximity to Martinez. 15,000 people, many of whom call Martinez their home. Antioch, 1,535; Concord, 812; El Cerrito, 1,584; Hercules, 373; Martinez, 3,858; Pinole, 947; Pittsburg, 1,535; Richmond, 14,842; Walnut Creek, 535.

CURRY HAS FIGURES
RICHMOND, Aug. 20.—That the 1920 census of Martinez will show a population of 3,858, which is an increase of over 1,500 from 1910 is the statement given out by Congressman Charles F. Curry, who has the figures from the Census Bureau at Washington. Curry expects that the State of California will have at least two additional congressmen. One will be from the bay section while the other will be around Los Angeles. The third Congressional district which comprises Contra Costa, Sacramento, Solano, Napa, Yolo and San Joaquin counties, may be changed by the dropping off of one county.

RIGGARDI CAUSES TRIAL CLASH HERE

An attempt by Prosecutor Wade Snook to find out from a witness whether he had talked with C. Vincent Riccardi, San Francisco attorney, who made sensational charges of ball bond manipulation in San Francisco police courts, precipitated a clash with Attorney Joseph Lacey, defendant counsel, during the trial of Vincenza Marcellini today.

Whether or not the prosecution could seek to impeach its own witness was the question raised when the argument ensued. Lacey maintained the prosecution could do this, while Snook held that he had a right to show if his witnesses had been tampered with.

Information coming to the district attorney's office that Riccardi had interviewed some of the witnesses caused Snook to ask the question. Riccardi is said to have become interested because he learned that a quarrel as to the merits of his charges preceded the shooting of Thomas Serrano at the home of Joseph Annunzio, 233 Market street, on February 3. Annunzio is the witness who was asked if he had talked to Riccardi.

Whether the prosecution can get the information desired has not yet been determined. Judge W. M. Finch taking the point under advisement.

Previous testimony was given by Nick Manon, who told the circumstances surrounding the shooting. He said Serrano had threatened Marcellini with a gun earlier in the evening, but that subsequently the two men became reconciled and shook hands. Later, Manon said, Marcellini returned to the home of Annunzio and saying, "You wanted to kill me, now I will kill you," fired several shots at Serrano. He said Serrano had his hand in the pocket in which he kept his gun when shot.

Action by the council was taken on a resolution submitted by Commissioner Serrano, calling for the issuance of an invitation to all civic and commercial organizations and all citizens to assist at the municipal pier in the reception to the steamer. According to information supplied the Council the first ship in the service will leave Baltimore for Oakland August 21.

Missing Girl Found; Tells Kidnaping Tale

Missing since July 26 and the object of a search by her stepfather, Patrolman J. M. McCarthy, 3957 Dakota street, Gertrude Kane, 15 years old, was found last night on lower Broadway, by the police, according to an announcement by the police today.

The report that she was arrested in Merced on a runaway charge, in company with a man, was declared to be false.

The girl told the police an incoherent story of her adventures since she disappeared on the morning of July 26. She says she was accosted by a man who offered her $500 if she was willing to work by a man driving a large car. The man offered to take her to work in the car, and she readily consented. She charged that he kidnapped her and took her to various places.

Inspector Arthur Sanderson was detailed to investigate the case and obtain a more coherent story from the girl, who is being held in the Detention Home pending the police investigation.

English May Collect Debts From Germany

Advice as to how British subjects residing in the United States may obtain from Germany payment of interest or capital which, before and during the war fell due to them as holders of securities issued by the German government, was issued today from the British embassy at Washington, D. C., through the San Francisco consulate.

Such claims, the embassy announced, should be submitted through the controller of the clearing house, enemy debts division, Cornwall House, London, England, for special forms which that office will issue on application. This method of settlement of such claims was provided in the peace treaty.

Council Authorizes Parr Terminal Bill After Tiff

Parliament of a claim of the Parr Terminal company for returns from the company's western waterfront lease was authorized by the city council this morning over the protest of Commissioner of Public Works Frederick Soderberg after a long and bitter controversy in which the department head continued his opposition to the Parr operations but was overruled on almost every point by the other four commissioners.

The issue was held over from another long council battle yesterday which resulted in City Attorney H. L. Hagan being directed to inform the commissioners whether or not the Parr operations, which Commissioner Soderberg refused to recommend for payment, could legally be authorized over the department head's objection.

CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION.
A favorable opinion under which the council could proceed was submitted from the city attorney's office this morning when the question was again tossed into the council chamber, and was voted on after a long and vigorous fight by Commissioner Soderberg to prevent balloting. All of the other members of the council voted to approve the claim.

During the controversy Commissioner Soderberg again opened an attack on the Parr lease, questioning the present document under the amendments of March, 1919, and submitted a resolution calling upon the city legal department for a survey of the lease situation and a report to the council not later than September 15.

BATTLE ON COUNCIL FLOOR.
Commissioner Soderberg's campaign on the council floor to have the resolution voted on before the vote on the claim was taken resulted in a sharp battle of wits that ended when the commissioner was outvoted and the claim allowed first. When the resolution and communication were finally considered both were ordered referred to the city attorney as communications from Commissioner Soderberg and not as council records. The motion was voted through by Mayor John L. Davis, Commissioner W. J. Bacon, City Engineer J. T. Bates, City Attorney H. L. Hagan and the opposing vote of Commissioner Soderberg, supported on this point by Commissioner W. H. Edwards.

PETTY DELAY CHARGED.
During the controversy the company head, Frederick Parr, offered the services of well-known attorneys to assist City Attorney Hagan in the survey of the lease, and declared the document had already been passed on favorably by some of the best known legal lights of the coast. Parr charged that Commissioner Soderberg's action was "another move to delay operations under the lease."

Commissioner Soderberg, in opposing the claim, declared that he could not authorize the payment because of his inability to determine the validity of the bill under the lease terms without an opinion from the city attorney.

RETAILERS BLAME WHOLESALERS For High Cost of Clothing

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The first annual convention of the California Retail Clothiers' Association opened today at the Palace Hotel.

The prevailing high cost of men's wearing apparel was blamed on the wholesaler, who, it was charged, had induced the retailer to purchase large stocks of high-priced goods on the representation that only 50 per cent of the orders submitted could be filled. It was charged that as a matter of fact retailers who had put in large orders in anticipation of only a small part of their orders being filled, were stuck with inventories which approximated 50 per cent of the order given by the retailer.

ORDERS FALL OFF.
Herman Frank of Los Angeles, president of the State organization, said that clothing orders for the first 10 days of 1920 by retailers are reported to be 25 per cent less than purchases made at a similar time last year, while the present wholesale price is considerably higher.

He said he interpreted this to mean that retailers generally were falling back on their stocks now in possession, awaiting further orders.

Many retail merchants, he charged, followed such old-fashioned bookkeeping methods that they were paying excess income profit taxes on incomes they had never received. He also assailed the American Woolen Company which, he charged, had tried to compete with retailers generally by the establishment of a nation-wide chain of clothing stores.

OAKLAND MUST INCREASE SHIP PLANTS; HANLON

The drydock and shipbuilding repair facilities of the Eastbay plants will have to be expanded at least two-fold within the next decade for the city to keep up with the repair business which will be thrust upon local concerns, according to statement of Dan Hanlon of the Hanlon Dry Dock and Shipbuilding company.

Engineers at the Hanlon plant are the ones who will plan and specifications for a new drydock which will be large enough to accommodate 10,000 ton ships.

REPAIR PROBLEM ENORMOUS.
"Completion of the Shipping Board building program will mean that shipyards will be idle," says Hanlon. "On the other hand, there will be too much work for present facilities in handling the repair work on American ships during the war."

Briefly, this is the situation: "About 50 per cent of the shipbuilding plants of the country have gone out of business or will in the near future. That means that the remaining 40 per cent will have to be depended upon to do all of the new construction work and handle all of the repairs. The repair and rebuilding work will be extremely big thing. We have now a huge merchant marine—millions of tons—constructed under rush conditions incidental to the war."

MANY MUST BE REBUILT.
"Many of the ships have to be remodeled and changed because they are being put to new uses which demand expensive alterations. There have been developed defects that must be corrected. In addition it always requires a lot of repairs to keep good ships in shipshape condition and when one considers the tremendous tonnage flying in any one day it is apparent that it will require the facilities of all of the plants to do the necessary work."

"The local district has demonstrated that climatically we are situated where the workmen can accomplish more in a given period of time than can the workers of the eastern coast. My own concern and others here have offered to accept contracts under conditions that would prove fatal for eastern concerns, because we know that we can go ahead with work here and not fear a shutdown on account of stress of weather."

THREE MONTHS IN JAIL.
By consent of Assistant District Attorney John C. Callahan, the charge of grand larceny against Albert Howard, colored, changed to petty larceny, to which he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three months in the county jail by Judge W. M. Finch. According to the complaint, Howard took $4 from Joe Perry on a street near May 15.

MEXICALI WILL BAR GAMBLING

MEXICALI, Cal., Aug. 20.—A very short lease of life was being enjoyed by Mexicali's notorious gambling resorts, which must close September 1, according to the orders of General Luis M. Salazar, newly appointed chief executive of Lower California.

Governor Salazar will not close saloons in the district, he said today. He is, however, unalterably opposed to the gambling and vice concessions, which have been given until September 1 to wind up their affairs.

Strict regulation of liquor traffic will be ordered, Salazar said. Saloons have been ordered closed for a few days, until soldiers of the Cantu army are mustered out. Walter F. Boyle, American consul-general at Mexicali, Cal., today received notice from the state department at Washington, that an order had been issued for the immediate reopening of border ports between California and Mexico, which were closed last Saturday because of unsettled conditions. The message said that all danger to connection with the recent schism between Governor Cantu and the Mexican provisional government was now considered past.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 20.—Reports that Esteban Cantu, governor of Lower California, had turned over his office to Luis M. Salazar were declared correct today by Miguel Alessio Robles, secretary to the provisional president. He said Cantu was going to Los Angeles, from which city he will later come here.

"The settlement of the Lower California situation," said Robles, "completes the pacification of Mexico."

OAKLANDERS PAY BIG BOOZE FINES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Three Oakland men today paid in $450 into the United States Treasury for violations of the prohibition law. United States District Judge Frank H. Rudkin fined Joseph Panella, 1454 Seventh street, $150 for illegal possession of liquor, which was unknown. Teddy O'Hara, 332 Broadway, was fined $100 for having liquor behind the bar. O'Hara claimed he had been in the establishment two days.

John Ceschin, proprietor of an Italian boarding house, 101 Webster street, was fined $200. He is alleged to have sold four drinks to two enforcement agents.

TRAPPED THIEF ESCAPES WHEN POLICE ARRIVE

Simultaneously came the call into the Oakland and Piedmont police departments: "Come quick, there is a burglar in the house" from the home of Mrs. L. Cloutier, 543 Kenmore avenue.

"Shhh, we have the burglar trapped," whispered Mrs. Cloutier, when the police arrived.

The burglar had been penned in the basement by one of the daughters of Mrs. Cloutier. A scratching sound came from the basement.

"He's trying to saw or cut his way out," said Inspector Tom Woods. Then the door was opened.

"Meow—Pussiest," yowled a large black cat, which darted between the legs of Woods and disappeared.

Rioting Prisoners Do $10,000 Damage

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 20.—(United Press.) Sixty prisoners in the Maryland penitentiary who expressed their desire for a more elaborate cuisine by staging an all night riot, went back to their cells today outwardly subdued, but inwardly yearning for table delicacies.

The prisoners succeeded in doing $10,000 worth of damage before they were rounded up by prison guards, city policemen and firemen. Shots fired in the air and lustily wielded clubs had no effect on the rioters. Only when treated to a bath from fire hoses did they call off their home grown revolution.

Express Company Is After Higher Rates

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Application for a further increase of 15 per cent in express rates was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the American Railway Express company.

This increase is sought to cover increased wages to express employees granted by the railroad labor board. The increased wages are estimated at $40,000,000 annually by the express company, and as $20,000,000 by the labor board.

An increase of 12 1/2 per cent in express rates was granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission last week.

Court Restrains Dental Examiners

Upon the application of Oliver Dibble, attorney for the state board of dental examiners, for an extension of time within which to file an answer and return in the certiorari proceedings instituted by Dr. Saul R. Jacobs of Oakland to review the action of the dental board in suspending his license, Superior Judge Koford today granted a writ restraining the dental board from interfering with Dr. Jacobs' license during the pendency of the action.

September 5 was set as the return day. Dr. Jacobs was represented by Attorney Leon E. Gray, A. S. Humphreys and J. A. Prentiss.

Capacity of Harbor Can Be Easily Increased, Booster Told

For $350,000 the city of Oakland can put into use 5000 linear feet of docking space and can bring scores of vessels directly to this port, which now transship cargoes from San Francisco, J. J. McElroy declared today at the weekly luncheon of the Boosters' club of the United Commercial Travelers at the Hotel Oakland.

McElroy, who has been studying the maritime problems of Oakland, in speaking on the topic "The Industrial Development of the Eastbay," said that sixty per cent of the cargo of every vessel docked in San Francisco was transshipped to this city.

because it cannot be conveniently brought here in the bottoms. A large number heard McElroy's talk.

George Gelder, former state assemblyman, also spoke.

"The capacity of a port is measured by the capacity of its terminals," declared McElroy. "Of what use will it be for the United States government to spend $200,000 in dredging and widening the estuary unless we provide terminals. Until the present dredging work was started, there was only ten feet of water alongside the key wall so that although ships might come into the channel, they could not dock safely."

"What we need is a big annual appropriation by the city for water-front development. Last year $242,000 was provided for harbor improvement. Considering the importance of bringing great industries here and providing an outlet for their products, this sum was small enough."

"In 1913, which is taken as a criterion because things were more normal at that time, the commerce of this port amounted to 3,413,850 short tons valued at $183,441,742. This included 1,198,538 tons worth $119,852,000 which was ferried to San Francisco."

HAS UNLIMITED AREA
"Oakland has an almost unlimited area back of her wharves at which to establish assembling plants. At these points the cargoes of ships can be reassembled in mixed cargoes for shipment all over the United States. As an example of the superiority of this city in that regard we have the example of the American Can company."

The million dollar plant of this company in San Francisco can ship out more than 100,000 cases of condensed milk a day. This plant in East Oakland can spot 100 cases if necessary.

"Oakland's position on the mainland gives her an enormous advantage which cannot be put to good use until we develop our harbor, channels, terminals and wharves."

RESCUE AND A WARNING.

Poland's successful reaction against the drive of the Russian Reds on Warsaw and the Dantzig corridor to the Baltic Sea, which would have restored the isolation Germany so long maintained against the Poles, is the most encouraging news that has come out of Europe since the Polish retreat started.
It has been made possible mainly by France.
The Polish armies have been reinforced by French officers and French tactics have been applied.
This has put new vigor into the Polish troops and that with the new supplies that have been furnished, was all that was needed.

If the French tactics are followed up, without interference in behalf of the Bolsheviks by Mr.
Lloyd George of England, the safety of the Polish republic is assured. For it is the French system to attack and keep on attacking until the enemy is routed. The political assistance of France in recognizing the Wrangle government in Southern Russia will go far also in restoring Polish equilibrium. The first effect of French recognition is the action of four powerful Cossack factions in the Crimea and the Caucasus regions in affiliating with the Wrangle government.

Assuming that the pressure will be maintained against the Red armies of Lenin and Trotsky until they are cured of their criminal purpose to destroy Poland and erect a soviet dictatorship on its ruins, the crisis has been passed. In the rout of the Bolsheviks time will be gained by Poland to repair her frontier defenses and complete the reorganization of her military on an efficient defensive basis.

So much for the rescue of Poland from the latest effort of Red invasion. As to the future, Polish policy will doubtless be guided by the recent declaration of the Secretary of State at Washington that it was the unalterable view of the American government that the dismemberment of Russia should not be the aim of any peace settlement or a part of the scheme of any European governments. Restoration of the Polish nation, with an independent government, within the ethnic boundaries defined by the Versailles peace treaty has been approved, but no more than that.

If Poland again covers Russia territory beyond these boundaries and attempts to sustain an aggressive and indefinite invasion of additional territory, she cannot expect either the sympathy or the material help of her present friends.

The French government, in the note from Premier Millerand to Secretary Colby, published in yesterday's TRIBUNE asserts absolute approval of the American position on four vital points—non recognition of the Bolshevik regime, sympathy with any government which the Russian people of their free will and choice shall set up, opposition to any efforts or schemes for the dismemberment of the territory of the former Russian empire as preserved by the peace treaty, and sympathy and support for the independence and security of Poland. This is a sound foundation for the peace of eastern Europe. Adherence to it by Poland will ultimately bring peace.

The Poles have learned their lesson in the dramatic school of defeat. If they profit by their experience they will retire to the boundaries defined at Paris as soon as they have disposed of the Red armies and thenceforth follow the advice of France and the United States. Otherwise they are apt to find themselves friendless and helpless.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

What Science Says Is the Reason You Frequently Yawn.

By Dr. LEONARD K. HIRSBERG, A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

Why do you yawn? Well, you are told that bad air, fatigue, exhaustion, oncoming disease, anemia and similar distempers are the cause of yawning. This, however, does not explain the mechanical, chemical and physiological origin of the yawn.

As a result of recent investigations
two principles were discovered, namely, the extremes of too much muscular ease and relaxation, as well as too much muscular tension. These produce a tendency to yawn. That is to say, yawns are much like stretching.

When you, your dog or cat awaken from a snooze, beside the grate fire or after a night's sleep, you yawn and stretch to stir up the cramped, flaccid, eased-up muscles, much as a baseball player or athlete or race horse is given practice or a gallop before the game or race.

When you view the movies, the eye muscles, of which there are about 20, are called upon to do something different from their every day, outdoor and indoor practice. This readjustment produces the yawn and the drowsiness, as much as does the crowded, carbonated bad air of improperly ventilated houses.

The curled-up, jack-knife folds in which dogs and cats sleep, call for a waking yawn and stretch to pull the various muscles and tendons into proper place. Similarly a horse or mule will yawn to help steady his legs.

Of the reasons a full stomach,
hook-worm disease, sheer indolence,
inactivity or excessive loss of sleep
give rise to yawning, were shown by experiments to be due to the call of abused and overused muscles for help and assistance of other muscles.
It is evident now for the first time that yawning is a cry in the wilderness for first aid. It is the call of the set of muscles to the reserves of other unused, relaxed, less tired ones.

The stomach is partly muscle, the heart is mostly muscle, the eyes are largely muscular. Indeed, much of a man's most important structure is muscular. Obviously, if any set or group of muscles is in need of help
the lactic acid and used-up muscle sugar becomes a signal in the language of your physiological chemistry to the jaw and chest muscles.
Then you yawn or stretch or do both,
which summon the corporal of the guard to the post in trouble. You are thus, somewhat revived, and a momentary relief may be all you need in an emergency.

PROCEEDING CAUTIOUSLY.

In refusing to be stampeded into a hasty action which could result in nothing but confusion the Committee of Twenty One, at its initial meeting on Wednesday evening, took the best possible course of procedure. Before any men are delegated to look into the qualifications of possible freeholders or to start a campaign toward the nomination of any set of men for the place, before the actual machinery of a $100,000 election is started, the committee will have investigated the legal phases of the consolidation proposal and will have collected and made available to the public all of that important information which must be furnished if there is to be an intelligent discussion of the plan.

Until those facts are sought out and until there has been made plain the legal grounds upon which the committee may stand, it is futile to talk of a choice of individuals to compose the committee's ticket of freeholders. So also would it be a waste of time to call a public meeting for discussion until there are facts and figures to be given out.

Before the county is saddled with the expense of a freeholders' election the Committee of Twenty-One should insist that the outside communities should give, through their municipal, civil or commercial bodies, some assurance that the consolidation plan, if carried out, would be a general plan of consolidation. To date there has been no such assurances. Without the support of all the outlying districts any plan of federation will fail.

Surely, then, it is within the province of the committee, representing the county as it does, to sound out that sentiment and to act in accordance with it. To hasten through with a program only to find that county division had resulted in place of the sought-for consolidation would be to destroy that unity now possessed. It would mean the alienation of districts and the creation of sore spots that will take long in the healing.

There are many questions the sub-committees on law and facts will have to answer. For instance, many wish to know what disposition is to be made of those districts which may refuse to join in a federation plan. Others would ask if it is true, as has been stated by a public official of Berkeley, that that city is already disinclined to accept any charter that may be drawn and that Berkeley is primarily interested in the formation of a city and county government of its own which can only be brought about following the defeat of a proposed consolidation charter. Answers to the questions of cost and of possible saving under the new plan must be forthcoming.

The committee, then, has started its task with the purpose of collecting data, legal and statistical. It must know that before a consolidation district has declared itself on the plan, that the awaited information must be given these districts before any decision is reached, and that these separate decisions of the various municipalities and county units must be given the general public before the election machinery is given its definite impetus.

NOW AS A REFORMER!

That word inventors long ago should have invented a word to serve for the awkward precision of constantly repeating "he or she," "him and her"
and "his and her" is a belated discovery of the Sacramento Bee. The Sacramento paper, despite the fact that others have tried to do the same, has arrived in solution "hir."

Hereafter the Bee will present such a sentence
as "Every applicant at the marriage license bureau is cory he or the inevitable difficulties to tell his or her age," as "hir" invariably disposes to tell his age. And, says the Bee, fills the bill and tells the story without slighting the female sex.

It is doubtful if the Bee's advent into orthography will be widely followed. Even in the case of the pronouns "he" and "him" in the generic sense of "man," word mean both parties. "Hir" will help make the Bee's columns unusual, it will attract the startled attention from the unwary visitor in Sacramento, and it will bring forth
many letters from the oldest subscribers.

But the resolve is made, the consequences are

INCOME AND WEALTH.

The story of the 14,000 or 15,000 war-made millionaires which furnished ammunition to radical propa-gandists was also enough at the time it caused curiosity. In the first place, it was based on neither evidence nor fact, and, moreover, it took no consideration of the fact that a man whose income was $50,000 might have made $45,000 last year in that case, according to this very often inaccurate calculation, he was worth $900,000 a year ago; but because his income is reduced to $5,000 in a single year—an increase largely wiped out by the tax—he was called a
"war millionaire."

Officials of the Treasury Department, according to a new article published yesterday, now admit that it is incorrect to call a man who has an income of $50,000 a "war millionaire." It is making himself a "war millionaire" representing small capital.
On the other hand, the Treasury Department quite accurately points out that many men whose capital totals a million or more have it invested very largely in tax-free securities bearing a low rate of interest. Yet the balance is probably the other way; that is there are fewer actual millionaires than income millionaires.

This conclusion is strengthened by the statement that two men in the United States alone have incomes of $1,000,000. That is a large sum, and the two incomes may be widely apart. It will generally be supposed that the two men are John D. Rockefeller, Jr.
and J. P. Morgan, Jr. It is possible that the other is Henry Ford. What the relative size of their incomes may be is known outside of the Treasury Department, but it is pretty certain that the two men are a good deal lower percentage on what might, by any computation, be described as his capital than does Mr. Rockefeller.—
New York Times.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Because he failed to retain the hide and horns of a deer killed in this county, Roy Shostak of Cloverdale appeared before Judge Hurley in the justice court yesterday, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25. Shostak pleaded ignorance of the law which requires that the hide and horns of deer must be kept during the open season and until ten days after the season closes.—

Fully 4000 people, crowded into the grandstand at the Pleasanton driving park Sunday, watched the Thomas H. Ince Motion Picture Company, with Douglas MacLean in the title role, make a picture of
to be shown on the screen. And to keep the crowd interested a varied program, consisting of broncho busting and bull riding was furnished by Frager Bros., while several artists from the Orpheum circuit put on a number of vaudeville stunts. An aeroplane from Oakland also flew in front of the grandstand.—Pleasanton Times.

Far be it from us as publishers to suggest that the newspaper is the only proper advertising medium for the cards of political candidates.
But at any rate we do not believe that nature grew her oak trees to be used as billboards. Many of this year's candidates are doing their utmost to disfigure the landscape by that method—a practice which can hardly be expected to make them popular.—Palo Alto Times.

Another item has been added to the list, east of living—for young men. A Chicago judge has ruled that if a man's best girl gives $2 from the change a waiter brings back after the time has been paid for it is the part of chivalry to say nothing about it. She may need it.
Above all things, ruled the judge,
it is not good form to punch the young lady in the jaw. And he fined the young fellow $200 to remind him that courting comes high even in cave-man circles.—Stockton Record.

At Atwater a big tractor harvesting outfit, traveling on the highway, was held up by the officers and the people in charge fine $100 for violation of a state law which prohibits certain conditions for such travel.—Merced Star.

THE ADVERTISING ROUND

Every child is born to be an advertising man. Their keepers have a subconscious realization of this at first, but are constantly forgetting it later. What is the volume which sophisticated parents hand their young when the early morning hours are rent with sounds of waking? Is it the embossed and hand tooled edition of fairy tales which has lately broken the hearts of rival publishers? Or is it the new book of Sears-Robuck catalogue. This is why I say that all children are born with the advertising tendency. And unless that tendency is deflected by parents it will increase rapidly with years, and it allowed full flower making them wealthy and influential men and women. What days they work they sit in easy offices writing
such golden phrases as "Your Nose Knows." They lunch copiously with fellow members of the luxurious profession, returning to write another catchy phrase or two. Other days they give openly to recreation.—

ELDERLY WOMEN TO FIGHT POLICE THEFT CHARGES

BERKELEY, Aug. 20.—Following admissions by Mrs. Marie Bailey and Mrs. Tillie Glover, women "raffish" who have been ending the police for almost a year in their operations in clubhouses, that they are guilty of thefts amounting to several thousand dollars, the prisoners were turned over today to Dr. Jau Don Ball for a psychopathic examination.

While Mrs. Bailey has made a full confession to the police, Mrs. Glover has merely admitted her guilt. "I'm guilty," she said last evening. "That's all you want to know, isn't it? An effort is being made to secure a full confession from Mrs. Glover."

OLDER LOOKS YOUNGER
Mrs. Glover, smartly attired in a flower-decked hat with a natty veil and a tailored blue suit, looks by many years the younger of the two women, although Mrs. Bailey is 16 years her junior. Booked yesterday Mrs. Glover gave her age as 63. Patrolman D. H. Fraser, the booking officer, stopped with pen in air.

"That's right," assured the fair prisoner. "Nobody thinks I'm that old, but I am. They always think I am 20 years younger than I am," added the woman in a tone of pride. Mrs. Bailey, when arraigned yesterday, declared that the name of "Marie Bailey" given by her to the police, was not her right name, but was a cognomen taken by her daughter, who is a moving picture actress. Not as smart a figure as Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Bailey is more of the grand-motherly type of women, plump and short. Not that he outdone in smartness by Mrs. Glover, she wore a bright green long coat and up-turned hat of pink straw. Her hair is streaked with silver, while Mrs. Glover's is as glossy brown as that of a young woman.

WEAKNESS FOR CLOTHES
A desire for pretty clothes, a good time and luxurious apartments is declared to have prompted the women to their larceny acts. Both have grown children. At 729 Hyde street, San Francisco, they maintained a fashionable apartment, the scene of many gay parties. The furs, coats and jewelry which they obtained from Town and Gown, Twentieth Century and Berkeley Tennis clubhouses Mrs. Bailey declared they sold to obtain funds for furies.

That both women will fight for freedom was evidenced yesterday in their announced refusal to Judge Harry Pulcifer that they would have counsel to defend them when they appeared on August 25 for preliminary examination. Each was held under $2000 bail.

Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Glover have money for luxuries all over the State, according to the police. They are being connected up with alleged similar thefts in Stockton, San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles and other cities.

"FLUFFY RUFFLES" CAUSES ROW ODD TANGLES IN LOVE ARE TOLD

Pearl Alisky May Rewed Husband Of Other Days

Mrs. Bertha S. Peck, after thirty-five years of wedded life is seeking temporary alimony of $100 a month from her husband, Albert S. Peck, connected with the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refinery at Crockett. She was granted $60 by Judge Everett J. Brown.

Threats to cut her heart out and endearing letters from one who signed himself "Fluffy Ruffles," are roundups upon which Mrs. Peck will base her suit for divorce, which was entered on a secret file several weeks ago. The Pecks were married in Emporia, Kan., in 1885. In 1910 they separated because of the husband's habitual intoxication. She alleged, he chased herself and son with a carving knife. Mrs. Peck says she has been forced to support herself and two sons since 1909. Two reconciliations occurred this year, one in January, another in July. Upon complying with his plea to come to Crockett and live, her reception was the letters signed by "Fluffy Ruffles," which he showed her.

BEATRICE CLIFTON ELOPES
While Miss Beatrice E. Clifton, graduate of Miss Hamlin's School, and Lieutenant Drury J. Tallant, hero of the Argonne, are honeymooning, the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles W. Clifton, 1239 California street, San Francisco, is endeavoring to locate the young couple, who eloped yesterday. The courtship of the society girl by the army officer was not looked upon with favor by Mrs. Clifton. She denied them meetings. When Miss Clifton yesterday was visiting Mrs. W. Edatt, 234 Central avenue, Alameda, the couple slipped away to Oakland and were married.

"We've just been married, but don't for the world tell mother," was the bride's announcement to Mrs. Edatt. Mrs. Pearl Landers Whitney, aunt of the bridegroom, prepared an impromptu wedding supper. The couple are en route to Southern California.

Tallant is the son of Mrs. Fred Tallant. His father was a member of a pioneer banking firm. While overseas he was attached to the 91st Division.

COUPLE MAY RE-MARRY
For the purpose of re-affirming her first marriage with Charles W. Alisky, from whom she was divorced in 1912, although she later married Theodore Annreiter of Oakland and Eric Campbell, motion picture actor, Mrs. Pearl Gilman Alisky, filed a suit yesterday which revives an interesting stage story.

The California courts are asked to decide whether the half-sister of Mabelle Gilman Corey is the wife of

MRS. PEARL GILMAN ALISKY

Alisky, the heir to his mother's estate of approximately a million dollars.

The Oregon decree of divorce of eight years ago is believed to be void by Ernest Pagnuolo, attorney for Mrs. Alisky, who mentions that collusion and fraud were resorted to, and that neither party concerned had complied with Oregon laws in establishing residence. However, the legality of the divorce is not attached in the suit which Mrs. Alisky filed yesterday. The former stage girl claims that at the time of the money settlement with her first husband she was told he had been disinherited by his parents. Recently he inherited a large property.

Alisky was manager of a chain of theaters when he married Miss Gilman in 1907. Four years later the wife filed a suit for divorce in San Francisco. In retaliation, Alisky sued a counter-claimant in Oregon, naming Norman Gray, a vaudeville actor. Mrs. Alisky transferred her suit to the northern court and won the decree. In the settlement she received $2000. Later she brought a $150,000 alienation suit against her husband's parents. It was dismissed by the court.

While singing in a San Francisco cafe a few months later, the young woman married Theodore Annreiter. The romance ended in three weeks, when the bridegroom was arrested on a larceny charge. In 1917, Mrs. Alisky married Eric Campbell. He was shortly afterward killed in an automobile accident.

ROMANTIC COURTSHIP

A romantic courtship along the El Camino Real will culminate on Saturday night in the St. Francis hotel, when Miss Cornelia Rue Kemper, of San Luis Obispo, will become the bride of Harvey William Bell of Yonkers, N. Y. Five years ago the young couple were sweethearts. Two weeks ago they met again at Santa Barbara. Last Sunday while riding along the King's Highway they decided to renew their vows. Miss Katherine Stevenson, of New York, and Warren Kemper will be the only bridal attendants.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kemper, who came from Cincinnati, O., six years ago, to reside in San Luis Obispo. Bell is a construction engineer of New York.

Juniors to Study

Whole Year at Davis

BERKELEY, Aug. 20.—Students in the College of Agriculture at the University of California will in the future spend their entire junior year at the Davis branch of the university, according to an announcement issued by the Dean of the college today. In the past, the student-farmers were sent to Davis for the fall semester of their Junior and Senior years.

Six Copra Vessels Unload Cargo at Oakland Wharves; New Rumors of Terminal

A new record for copra shipments through Oakland is being made this week. There are now six sailing vessels at various docks unloading 1705 tons of copra from the South Sea Islands directly on to cars for shipment to refineries across the country.

The vessels discharging are: Schooner Forester, 708 tons; schooner Repeat, 400 tons; schooner Talbot, 384 tons; schooner Inca, 1190 tons; schooner Irwin, 361 tons; barkentine Lahaina, 1223 tons.

The presence of surveyors this week on the waterfront property just east of the Hannon shipyard which was acquired a year ago by Spencer Kellogg and Sons, Inc., of Buffalo, New York, as a site for a copra terminal, has given rise to rumors that the company is planning to start work on docking facilities and a copra oil refining plant. The San Francisco officials of the company say no immediate action is contemplated. At the time the site was purchased it was announced that construction of a plant employing 2000 persons and to cost $1,000,000 was contemplated. The work was later stopped, it is said, because of labor troubles growing out of the shipyard strike.

And now he opened the big machine and took the garments out, most carefully, one by one. I saw my own pants there, dripping with gasoline, and made a mental vow I would never strike a match on them.

Then all the garments were placed in a big basket made of copper, with little holes, all through the sides, he called them perforations. And when he had it full and cover on he started it to spin just like a top, and it made a funny singing noise, it sounded like the organ in our church.

And Tessie said she wanted to go out and get a breath of good old Oakland air, for she was drunk with gasoline, and that thing going round ten thousand turns per minute.

I thank you for today.

Uniform Coffee—
"Always Tastes the Same in the Cup"

Tue. Wed. Thurs. Fri. Sat.

It's a Vital Matter, Madam —To the Men

Don't blame men too much if they scold when the coffee isn't right. It's "half the breakfast."

Don't blame yourself, either, and don't let them blame you if the coffee varies in flavor. It's a brand's fault, not yours, if you keep the pot clean and make the coffee every day alike.

You need a brand that's always uniform—one that will enable you to have coffee 365 days in the year with the same taste in every cup. That brand is "Folger's Golden Gate." It's a never-changing brand.

Some brands vary constantly because the world's best raw coffees do.

We employ men with the skill of artistry. We match every lot so it's like every other. The can you buy now and the one a year from now will be exactly alike.

Some brands will bring you twenty different flavors in twenty cans. And you can't make good coffee 'though you treat it every day the same, if it doesn't treat you the same.

Try "Folger's Golden Gate" for after-dinner coffee. See how this delicious brand ends coffee-making troubles.

Expect It To Be Different—and Better

Expect this coffee to be different, for it is different, and better. You have never tasted finer coffee—that we know.

It is smooth, rich and full-flavored. And it's a non-acid coffee, so you can make it "strong" without losing its healthful effect.

Ask your grocer to send you a trial can today.

Learn what a changeless brand of coffee means.

GOLDEN STATE Powdered SKIM MILK

From the cow to the can in a few short hours, the white powder is the cleanest form for transporting milk to city homes.

In the Humboldt Creameries fresh skim milk is sprayed into cylinders, where the hot cyclonic air currents drive out moisture, and the solids fall in snow-white drifts to be carried by conveyors and sealed in pound cans without the touch of hand.

You add the water that makes the powder liquid skim milk.

As dependable in quality as GOLDEN STATE BUTTER and GOLDEN STATE SWISS CHEESE.

SAFETY TRAFFIC DEVICES WILL BE FEATURE OF RALLY

With the arrival of several of the groups of delegates who are to participate in an international gathering of traffic experts in San Francisco to be held next week, plans for that convention are assuming final form. Both Lieutenant Dan Sylvester, who is national president of the traffic officers' organization, and C. DeWitt DeMar, who is managing the safety first exposition to be held in the Exposition Auditorium in conjunction with the convention proper, are devoting their time to whipping final arrangements into shape.

From the standpoint of the public, the exposition is expected to create greater interest than the sessions of the convention as the former will include all the latest devices for regulating traffic and making travel by automobile and by other methods safer for all concerned. One of the most interesting exhibits will be the famous New York Fifth Avenue signal light system which has proven such a success in guiding the traffic on that crowded thoroughfare.

Other exhibits will include unique brake tests, showing the reliability of various makes of air brakes, and of new kinds of headlight devices. Every type of stop and turn signal will be displayed, not to mention all the accessories that come in the safety device class.

PHYSICIANS ASK MORE BLANKS; TO BACK DRY LAWS

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—The American protective medical fraternity was launched last night at a meeting of Chicago physicians to discuss the restriction of liquor prescription blanks.

One of the objects of the fraternity is "to secure for the physicians an unlimited number of prescription blanks." Among the other expressed objects, formally stated tonight, are to co-operate with the prohibition authorities in upholding the eighteenth amendment and assist in enforcement of the Volstead Act.

Dr. W. E. Scott, who was chief medical officer in charge of emergency influenza hospital at Washington, D. C., during the war, said the physicians themselves should be the ones to decide the number or blanks needed. Chicago physicians now are allowed 200 blanks every three months by the prohibition director.

BIG TREAT AWAITS HAPPY CHILDREN

A full house of happy children is expected tomorrow morning at the American theater when the TRIBE-UNE's Aunt Elsie and 50,000 clubs will have a special entertainment and program. Admission to the children will be free, with the requirement that children under ten be accompanied by their parents or older brothers or sisters.

The program includes the latest Goldwyn Rex Beach picture, "Going Some," which deals with the sporting feud between two rival ranches in the great southwest. Wagering a big cattle ranch against a sheep ranch upon the outcome of a foot race is one of the excitement-producing elements in "Going Some." The story is one of absorbing interest and is full of thrills and excitement. The cast is an all-star one. Cullen Landis has the leading part.

Besides the picture there is an elaborate program of singing and dancing specialty numbers by the TRIBE-UNE juvenile entertainers under the direction of Mrs. May Tyrrel and Beverly Swaby. Following is the complete program:

Picture—"Going Some."
Picture—"Baby Face" in comedy act, "Little Miss Wizard of Wisc-land."
Florie May Tyrrel and Bernice Claire Jahngien, "The Romper Kids" in song and dance specialty, "Gee I Wish I was a Caveman's Kid."
Alberta Blaire, song and dance specialty, "At the Darktown Dancing School."
Miss Dorothy Buechner, Oakland's talented young soprano singer, in song selection, "The Sand Man."
Florie May Tyrrel, "The Victor Record Girl" in dance characteristic in "Leo West Record Melody."
Bernice Claire Jahngien in song and dance specialty, "Oh Mother 'Im Wild."
A few minutes with Aunt Elsie of The Oakland TRIBUNE.

10,750,000 Residents in New York State

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The 1920 census will show that New York State has a population of 10,750,000, Director of the Census Sam L. Rogers announced today.

The State's population, as compiled for the 1910 census, was 8,112,614. In 1915 estimates by the Census Bureau placed the population at 10,646,983.

Tabulators in the census office are counting population figures at the rate of 1,000,000 persons a day. At the close of today's count the total population of the United States had reached the figures of 65,000,000.

Director Rogers estimates that complete count will show the population of the United States to be 105,000,000. The count will be completed in October.

Hog Island Sale Is Surprise to Builders

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—Officials of the International Shipbuilding Corporation expressed surprise tonight when they heard of the decision of the shipping board to sell Hog Island and deliver it to the purchaser October 1.

Under a contract entered into on February 8, 1920, between the shipping board and the shipbuilding corporation, the latter was given exclusive possession of the yard until the work of constructing the 122 ships originally contracted for by the government are completed. While all of these vessels have been launched, only 95 have been delivered, leaving 27 in the wet basin awaiting completion. It was estimated tonight that it would take until January 1, 1921, to complete these ships.

Legion Will Study Japanese Problem

When the American Legion meets in its annual state convention in San Diego August 25, the delegates through special permission from the state department will be taken across the line into Mexico to view some of the conditions brought about in Lower California through Japanese occupation, it was announced today.

On the request of Senator James D. Phelan, Secretary of State Edward C. Colby has directed that the bar to crossing the boundary line be lifted for the day to permit the Legion delegates to study the situation.

The Legion will meet with other organizations in San Francisco soon to consider the Japanese problem.

Colonel Hartley Turns On Hecklers

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 20.—Attempts to heckle Colonel Roland H. Hartley, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, when he spoke here last night, failed. "Unions and union men are all right," said Hartley.

"But you won't hire any union man," shouted some one in the crowd.

"There has not been a day in eighteen years that I have had lumber business in Everett that there were not union men working for me," declared the Colonel. "So long as a man can and does his work well I don't inquire whether he is or is not a union man."

Announces a Wonderful
Buying-Power Demonstration of Fall Clothing

Which We Shall Endeavor to Maintain
Throughout the Entire Season

It is hard to tell whether national clothing prices tend downward yet, but in this organization we do know that "buying-power" is a vast help in securing better clothes and lower prices for our patrons. We now introduce

New Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits

that offer you savings of ten dollars, twenty and even more on clothes of the highest quality

$60

is the Buying-Power Price

If you saw this entire new suit shipment spread out on tables you'd be amazed. The fabrics are the extra-fine wool weaves which have been so very scarce since before the war---the hard-finished worsteds that wear for seasons and always hold their style; silk mixed woolens, Banker's Grays, that are values at any price; Pebble worsteds, woven striped fabrics and mixtures that have lost nothing of their high quality, even though they're far under price.

ALL OF THESE suits were received only recently, hence every garment is of the type and character most needed for Fall. We call them "Staple Suits for Staple Men" because the wonderful fabrics, the sensible styles and exceptional tailoring are all that the sound, substantial men of this community desire. They're high-grade in every detail---the best clothes $60 has bought for a long time.

THESE ARE the sort of clothes a gentleman seeks---and expects to pay more money for; the Hart Schaffner & Marx tailoring with its masterful workmanship and expert needlework is typical of these famous makers---and the suits reproduce the custom-made idea. Many suits in this shipment duplicate expensive models in our own stock, but they will sell at $60, nevertheless.

Every suit in this $60 lot illustrates the greater value brought to you through "Buying-Power." All sizes are included, even stouts, longs, shorts and others---they're wonder suits for $60.

Headquarters for the Best Clothes Hart Schaffner & Marx Produce:
Knicker Suits for Boys---Prep Suits for Youths---and Suits of the Hour for Men and Young Men.

Our Entire Stock of Manhattan Shirts

at 1/4 off

The price reduction is the same everywhere, but wise men will choose their shirts at Roos'. This sale, the first in many seasons, finds us with the best selected stock of these famous shirts we've ever shown, featuring rare assortments of weaves and patterns---madras, granites, cords, the wonderful silk and fiber stripes, silk and linen mixtures and pure silks; and the larger selections make greater satisfaction a certainty. Buy a supply---our entire stock of Manhattans---25% off.

EFFECT OF POWER CUT ON EASTBAY SLIGHT, OUTLOOK

Orders of H. G. Butler, State power administrator, for a 20 percent reduction in the use of electric power will interfere in a small measure with manufacturing activities in the East-bay region, in the opinion of power company officials.

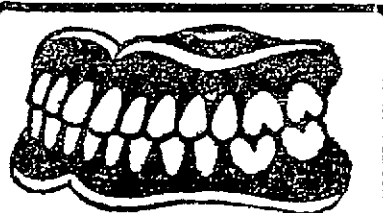

Butler's order, which does not apply for domestic use or for use of electric energy in connection with growing crops and the handling of perishable foods, demands the immediate reduction by one-fifth of the electric power used. It follows a conference of power companies and representatives, who discussed the serious situation resulting from scanty rainfall of last winter and abilities to north and central California. The enforcement of the orders are left with the power companies, as they are said to be the best judges of local conditions.

Shifting of the noon hour in a part of the local factories, furnishing a power for dredging on Saturday afternoon or Sunday, instead of during factory hours, the curtailment of energy given quarries, brick-making establishments and the like, and a reduction in power for signs and displays, will offer remedies, according to officials in the Eastbay field.

F. A. Leach, manager of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, and Frank Woodward, manager of the Great Western Power Company, said today that until they received their notices of the Butler order and had time to make an examination of conditions and possibilities, they could make no formal statement, but that, with the exception of the war-time proof of the saving that can be affected, they are not anticipating trouble. The order, it is thought, will be passed by September 15, it is thought.

"We cannot tell what we will do until we make a thorough analysis of our system and the conditions," is the only statement given out by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company, where it is admitted that a 20 percent reduction in energy between the hours of 7 a. m. and 10 p. m. would be difficult to accomplish. The taking off of a fifth of the power would not bring about the result as the crowding of the remaining cars would offset the saving.

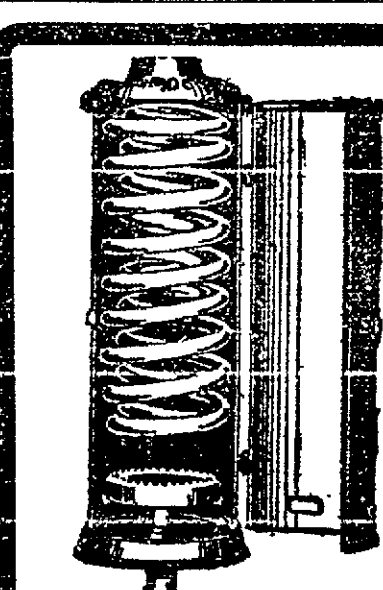

Following is the order:
Effective Aug. 20:
(1) The use of electric energy for power purposes, except domestic use and use in connection with growing crops and handling of perishable foods, shall be reduced 20 percent.
(2) The use of electric energy for the irrigation of vacant lands and of lands from which crops have already been harvested shall not be permitted during the present shortage.
(3) The attention of consumers of power for the irrigation of growing crops shall be called to

MOTOR THIEVES ESCAPE UNDER OFFICER'S FIRE

Two automobile thieves challenged while riding in a stolen car last night, escaped after an exciting chase, in which several shots were fired.

At 10:30 last night the Oakland police received from the police department of Alameda the report that a stolen car, a 1919 Buick, was being driven at high speed at Fourteenth avenue and East Thirty-second street.

Officer T. H. Munhollen, who patrols his beat in a roadster, recognized the stolen car as it drove by him at high speed at Fourteenth avenue and East Thirty-second street. Munhollen gave chase. The thieves were evidently inexperienced drivers, for the police car gained rapidly. When Munhollen drew up ahead of the other car, the thieves suddenly stopped and turned to the right. Munhollen jammed on his brakes and yelled to them to stop. When they did not do so he fired several shots in the air.

The stolen car rolled back down the hill and crossed into Munhollen's machine. Both cars were slightly damaged.

In the meantime Munhollen chased the thieves across several vacant lots but finally lost them in the darkness. He then towed the reclaimed car to the police station.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Reports from Tokyo that a plot to "hold" the party of American Congressmen now visiting the Far East when it arrived in Korea has been ascertained, were characterized today by Klusik Kim, chairman of the Korean commission, as "another groundless Japanese fabrication."

What was planned, he said, was to present a memorial to the party, and he declared this object was well understood in Tokyo.

the fact that unless a large reduction in electricity is made, drastic restrictions will become necessary.

(4) The power companies shall direct the attention of the city officials in their territory to the fact that electric energy used in street, sign and display lighting is being lost for productive purposes, and shall urge them to restrict this use as far as may be consistent with public safety.

(5) The above reductions in the use of electric energy shall be made, as far as possible, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 10 p. m.

(6) The power companies shall insert in all papers published in the territory they serve an advertisement referring to this order, calling attention to the power shortage, and urging consumers to conserve electricity used for any purpose in every way possible.

As a further means of curtailment, the resale companies were directed to file with the Power Administrator all applications for new power above 2½ horsepower, the administrator to determine whether the power asked for was for an essential industry. This practice has been followed by the generating companies for some time.

Traction Lines Sued for $30,000 Damages

Suit for $30,000 damages against the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railways, has been filed by Mrs. Harriett P. Markley, widow of Arthur Markley, driver of the jitney which was struck by a Key Route train at College and Claremont avenues during the street car strike when six other persons were killed.

The accident was due, it is alleged, to the train being handled by incompetent men, at a speed of 50 miles an hour, and that no alarm was sounded for the crossing. The accident happened on October 7, 1919.

Dazed Indiana Man Is Found On Street

Found wandering around the streets in a dazed condition at midnight, a man who gave his name and address as Hugh Short, aged 63, of Kokomo, Indiana, is being held at the Emergency hospital for investigation. Short told Steward Charles Emley that he had a daughter living at 125 Napa road, Vallejo.

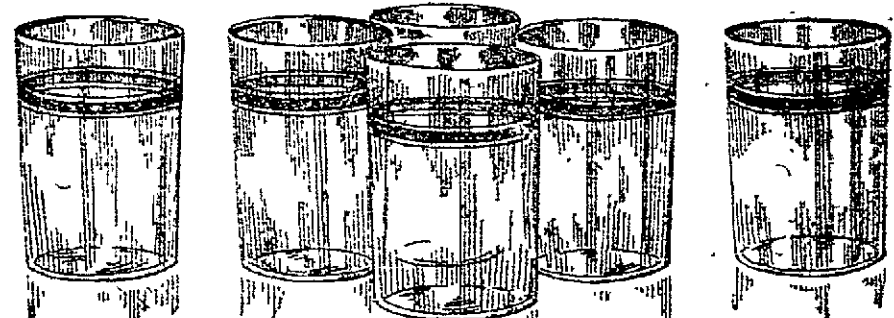

When found by the police at Seventh street and Broadway, Short declared he was looking "for his private Pullman car." He gave his occupation as a barber and his local address in Kokomo as 1132 Macann street.

Police Buy 'Grappa' and Arrest Dealer

Four glasses of grappa, sold indiscreetly to two Oakland policemen, probably will cost John Ceshin, alleged to be a surreptitious vendor of contraband liquor, many times the profit on the illegal product of the grape vine.

Policemen C. T. Anderson and D. Dantuma late last night entered the resort kept by Ceshin and ordered the liquor. They were in plain clothes. Ceshin served the grappa with a nervy and now he is in jail awaiting transportation to San Francisco, where he will be tried before Commissioner Francis Krull.
